2017 LONG ISLAND STATS

Whether it's needing access to programs for elderly parents, healthy recreation for teens, after-school child care, financial counseling, health resources, emergency food or programs for veterans & returning military, 2-1-1 connects Long Islanders with thousands of local services creating healthier, happier families and communities.

At 2-1-1 Long Island, the quality of every call and website interaction is important. We take the time to assess each caller's situation and refer them to the best possible services to meet their needs. We update the 10,000 program services in the 2-1-1 database throughout the year and each organization listed goes through an annual review.
