

helping youth get on the right track

YouthBuild Long Island is a signature program of United Way of Long Island, dedicated to changing the path of Long Island's youth by addressing the core issues facing low-income communities: housing, education, employment, crime prevention, and leadership development. At YouthBuild, low-income young men, women, ages 18 - 24, work towards their TASC High School Equivalency Diploma while learning essential job skills.

Participants can choose from a variety of vocation training paths including:

- Building Trades & Weatherization
- Manufacturing
- Customer Service
- Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA)
- Medical Billing & Coding
- Home Health Aide
- Dietary Aide
- Food Manager Certification
- Early Child Care

Support of the YouthBuild program gives young men and women a second chance to establish a productive life.
